

BEIJING 2008 OLYMPIC GAMES

August 8 – 24, 2008

“One World One Dream”, the 2008 Olympic Games slogan represents the Chinese strong desire for peaceful development and the building of a harmonious society.

2008 promises to be an historic moment in Chinese history and the Olympic Games will provide a front-row seat to watch it unfold. In addition to the events in Beijing, Hong Kong will host equestrian competitions, Qingdao will host the sailing regatta while Shanghai, Tianjin, Qinhuangdao and Shenyang will host preliminary football matches. Combining all this with the Olympic cultural events and China's long history and traditions, a trip to Beijing for the Olympic Games will provide a memorable and lasting travel experience.
